

Zindzi & the Zillionaires

Visual Story

I am going to the DreamBIG
Children's Festival at the Adelaide Festival Centre.

I am seeing a performance called 'Zindzi & the Zillionaires'.

The performance is taking place in the Space Theatre.

When I arrive, I will enter the foyer through the glass door entrance.

The foyer is a space where we wait to enter the theatre. It can be crowded and noisy.

I may have to wait in line until the theatre is open. If I need to sit down, there will be some seating around the foyer that I can use.

I will see Front of House staff working at the theatre doors and cloakroom/information desks.

They wear a uniform. They are friendly and I can ask them for help.

While we are waiting for the performance to start, it is a good time to go to the toilet.

There are signs in the foyer that show me where the toilets are. The toilets have different lighting to the foyer and can be a cramped space.

Accessible toilets are available next to the male toilets.

When it is time for the performance to begin, there will be an announcement and bell chime sound. This tells everyone to make their way into the auditorium.

Inside the theatre, there will be lots of seats facing towards the stage.

Everyone who is sitting watching the stage is called the audience. Everyone in the audience has their own seat.

To get to my seat, I may have to walk down some stairs. If I have trouble walking down the stairs, I can ask the Front of House staff member to find a different seat for me.

I may have to move past people who are already sitting.

I may have to wait while other people sit down to get to my seat.

Once I am sitting down, I will wait a few minutes for everyone else to sit down so the show can start.

When the show is about to start, the theatre will get dark. This tells me and the rest of the audience to be quiet.

The performance I am seeing today is 'Zindzi & the Zillionaires'. It is performed by Zindzi and her friends, the Zillionaires.

You can see the Zillionaires in this photo. They are very friendly and furry!

This performance is a music concert. Zindzi will be singing, and the Zillionaires will be dancing and playing music. There may also be other musicians on stage.

During the performance, the audience mostly stays quiet to watch the show.

If I see something that I like, or something I think is funny, I can clap my hands or laugh. Other people around me may laugh or clap.

If the clapping is too loud, I can cover my ears, wear earplugs or headphones.

During the performance, there may be things that make me nervous, like loud music. If I get nervous during the show, I can cover my eyes and ears, or wear headphones.

Zindzi may also ask the audience to sing along with her or give her a high five. I don't have to do this if I don't want to.

If I feel uncomfortable, I can leave the theatre. A Front of House staff member will have a torch to help me see in the dark theatre as I leave.

If I leave in the middle of the performance, I might not be able to go back into the theatre, but the Front of House staff will tell me if I can.

When the show is finished, the stage lights will go dark. The audience will clap to thank the performer. Then, the lights will come up.

I can follow other audience members to the theatre's exit, and back into the foyer.
